

Players, coaches, officials, even parents need to understand each other's roles and responsibilities. That means taking time to read booklets like Hockey Canada's Risk Management guide called Safety for All/Safety Requires Teamwork and NOHA's Speak-out Information on Harassment and Abuse. These and many others are available from your local hockey association and NOHA or go online at www.noha-hockey.com Shared respect... let's turn our attention to prevention!

Open, read and learn.
